

Introducing IPTECHFLEX Financing for Business Security and Access Control Solutions

Make Your Business Safer and Smarter with No Upfront Investment

IPTECHVIEW has partnered with Regions Bank's Ascentium group to offer a groundbreaking financing model that combines traditional equipment financing with a service subscription. This flexible solution allows you to enjoy the benefits of advanced security technology with minimal upfront costs and a single monthly payment.

Why Cloud-Direct Cameras and the Subscription Model Work

- Lower Initial Investment: You purchase only the essential cameras and on-premise hardware (like POE switches or network connectivity gear)—no need for servers, NAS, racks, UPS, extra shelf space.
- Reduced Interest Costs: Financing is limited to the upfront equipment, keeping interest rates low.
- All Inclusive Subscription: Available through 3- or 5-year agreements
- No extra cost for equipment maintenance, updates, security patches. No software, license, or upgrade needed.

Introducing the IPTECHFLEX Finance Plan

IPTECHVIEW has partnered with Regions Bank's Ascentium group to offer a groundbreaking financing model that combines traditional equipment financing with a service subscription. This flexible solution allows you to enjoy the benefits of advanced security technology with minimal upfront costs.

Simple Choices for Easy Decisions

Two Flexible Terms

Choose between 36 or 60 months to match your business needs.

Long-Term Reliability

Most systems last 6-10 years, making the 5-year plan a popular choice for lower payments and extended financing.

Why Choose IPTECHFLEX Financing?

- Streamlined Financing: Covers on-premise equipment, installation, and service subscription—all in one monthly payment.
- Minimized Interest Costs: Interest is limited to the on-premise equipment and installation.
- Flexible Subscription Renewal: Easily renew your subscription after the financing term and continue with service-only payments.
- Simplified Options: Two straightforward term lengths to make decision-making easy.
- Unlock Growth Opportunities: Invest in the latest IP technology with no upfront costs. Spread payments over time, optimize resources, and focus on growing your business.
- Flexible Solutions: Customize your camera mix and installation to fit any project size. IPTECHFLEX adapts to your needs
- Financial Health: Keep working capital intact for other business needs while enhancing security and operational intelligence
- Blended Interest Rate: Interest subscription component is free. This lowers the blended interest rate of equipment, installation, and subscription rate of 3.9% (rate may vary)
